

BERTL'S BEST 2008

13th Annual Awards

Best Development Platform

Sharp
Sharp OSA™ Technology

- Sharp OSA technology is designed to provide a customizable MFP that can meet virtually any business need
- Development platform turns an MFP into a gateway for document-based business communications by integrating the device with network-based applications including document management applications, reporting functions and internally developed programs
- Uses industry-standard protocols such as XML and SOAP for fast and easy development and deployment
- Sharp OSA platform is supported by a vibrant developer community, which provides a wide range of Sharp OSA-enabled applications that add functionality to the MFP across the full spectrum of product categories, including among others document management, workflow, fax servers, email integration, cost recover and device management
